STRUCTURED CREDIT VALUE PROPOSITION

- Structured credit markets, specifically the legacy mortgage sectors, provide the most attractive risk-adjusted returns in the fixed income markets
- Structural attributes effectively lower risk versus corporate credit of comparable yield
- Market inefficiencies offer the opportunity for potential excess returns through active security selection
- Structured Credit sectors offer some of the highest ratios of yield to duration in the fixed-income universe under current market conditions

¹ The Bloomberg Barclays U.S. Aggregate Index is a broadbased benchmark that measures the investment grade, U.S. dollar-denominated, fixed rate taxable bond market, including Treasuries, government related and corporate securities, MBS (agency fixed-rate and hybrid ARM pass throughs), ABS, and CMBS. Investors cannot invest directly into an index.

² No minimum initial investment for various wrap-fee programs and other sponsored arrangements.

³ For wrap fee and qualified accounts, minimum initial investment may be $10 million as approved by the manager.

Risks: There is no assurance that the Portfolio will achieve its investment objective. Exposure to the commodities markets may subject the Portfolio to greater volatility. There is a risk that issuers and counterparties will not make payments on securities and other investments held by the Fund, resulting in losses to the Fund. Currency strategies will subject the Fund to currency trading risks that include market risk, credit risk, and country risk. Derivative instruments involve risks different from, or possibly greater than, the risks associated with investing directly in securities and other traditional investments. Securities issued by foreign companies and governments located in developing countries may be affected more negatively by inflation, devaluation of their currencies, higher transaction costs, adverse political developments, and lack of timely information than those in developed countries. Event-linked securities may at any given time be illiquid, thus, the sale of these investments may be made at substantial discounts, delayed, or impossible. The Fund may invest in high yield securities, also known as "junk bonds." High yield securities provide greater income and opportunity for gain, but entail greater risk of loss of principal. The Portfolio may invest in mortgage and asset-backed securities that are subject to prepayment or call risk. Mutual funds involve risk, including possible loss of principal. Liquidity and/or diversification does not ensure profit or protect against loss.

FUND OBJECTIVE

The Fund seeks to provide a high level of risk-adjusted current income and capital appreciation. Capital preservation is a secondary objective.

JAMES ALPHA STRUCTURED CREDIT VALUE FUND

FOURTH QUARTER 2019

ORANGE INVESTMENT ADVISORS INVESTMENT THESIS

- Value investors in the fixed income markets
 - Security selection-driven, seeking the maximum cashflows on a risk-adjusted basis in the credit markets
- Impose limited constraints on opportunity set
- We seek:
 - Securities with structural features that attempt to increase the accuracy of credit analysis and risk assessment
 - Inefficient markets with mispriced securities
 - Securities with optionality to model inputs such that they exhibit positive skew to those factors, increasing in price more than they decrease in response to equal but opposite variation of model inputs
